

Know Your Rights

Your right to form a union, to organize your workplace, is protected by Federal Law.

- * You have the right to join the IAM and to ask others to join.
- * You have the right to attend IAM meetings and to ask others to attend.
- * You have the right to wear an IAM pin on the job so long as it does not carry a controversial slogan or violate company policy or uniform requirements.
- * You have the right to hand out union leaflets on your own time.
- * You have the right to assist in, and encourage others to support, the IAM, so long as such efforts do not interfere with your work or violate posted company policy.

If Delta Air Lines is violating your rights, contact an IAM Representative immediately. Reporting violations can be anonymous and will help protect you and your coworkers.
