Negotiators' Report For Week Ending June 4, 2010

Negotiations with the Company took place in Seattle this week with a lot of focus on the CSA uniforms under Article 18. The order period for the new uniforms has begun and the Union and Company worked diligently to try to resolve an interim process for the implementation of the new uniform for January 2011. A tentative agreement was reached on this article which will benefit our members at the conclusion of the ratification of a total agreement.

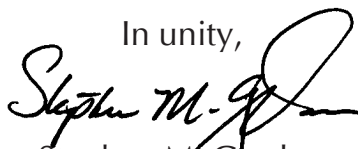

This tentative agreement does not change the language in the current agreement. So, a few questions remain with regard to the present ordering process. We encourage you to order on time but make sure you order the basic pieces that the Company will be requiring you to wear as outlined on the CSA Matrix and CSA Guidelines located at Alaskaworld under the CSA Uniform order site.

We had continued discussions on Article 10 regarding selection for jobs versus job bidding by seniority. No headway was made in this area and the Union remains unconvinced that any change is necessary. From the Union's perspective, the Company's proposal is unfounded.

Future dates for negotiations in August, September, October, November and December were offered by the Company. The Union accepted the dates but will continue to ask for more time. Our next meeting date with the Company is the week of June 15.

Stay Union strong!
