The A-B-Cs of Union Busting

Richard (A)nderson, Ed (B)astian, and Mike (C)ampbell are three of the top corporate executives most responsible for many of the problems we have faced in the union organizing campaign at Delta. Working together, they have:

1. Filed numerous documents with the NMB resulting in the IAM's having to respond. This, as well as other company-orchestrated issues, caused the fleet service election process to slow to a halt while all along blaming the IAM for unnecessary delays.
2. Posted numerous statements on their intranet about the IAM that were simply not true while portraying themselves as the truth tellers.
3. Preventing employees, system-wide, from receiving, reading, and discussing our information in non-work areas on non-work times in violation of federal laws – yet at the same time encouraging you to be informed.
4. Telling employees it's your choice and Delta is basically neutral on the subject of union representation while posting every negative piece of union propaganda on the Deltanet, which is required company reading every day.

What you've just read is a portion of the A-B-Cs of union busting. It has nothing to do about truth and everything to do about trickery. Don't be deceived by corporate chicanery.

Sign an A-Card today, and give yourself the opportunity to vote in a union representation election.

When the Time comes, Vote Union ... Vote IAM!
